ACCA - F7 Financial Reporting is a major link between the introductory ACCA F3 and the final paper ACCA P2. Almost whole syllabus of ACCA F7 is computational in nature and does not involve theoretical concepts with few exceptions (where we discuss the role of accounting bodies in standard setting and another area concerning business combination). ACCA F7 carries the same concept as F3 and introduces more complex accounting issues posed in circumstances which professional accountants are ...

This Study Text has been reviewed by the examiner and concentrates on the key areas of the syllabus, taking into account the examiner's guidance on how topics will be examined. The Text takes a step-by-step approach to producing consolidated financial statements and lots of exercises which allow you to practise the workings. We guide you through the more problematic topics which can be brought into the preparation of single company financial statements, and encourage you to develop the critical awareness of problems in financial reporting which the examiner expects to see demonstrated at this level. The Study Text is suitable for both International and UK streams. Additional topics relating to the UK are covered in an online supplement.
