Are the miraculous gifts of the Spirit for today? Are Miraculous Gifts For Today
The question is whether the miraculous gifts of the Spirit, described primarily in 1 Corinthians 12-14, are still active in the church today. This is also not a question of can the Holy Spirit give someone a miraculous gift. The question is whether the Holy Spirit still dispenses the miraculous gifts today. Above all else, we entirely recognize that the Holy Spirit is free to dispense gifts according to His will (1 Corinthians 12:7-11).

Cessationists argue "that there are no miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit today. Gifts such as prophecy, tongues, and healing were confined to the first century, and were used at the time the apostles were establishing the churches and the New Testament was not yet complete." Representing the Cessationist position is Dr. Richard B. Gaffin.~~

Another view which I had not heard of until I read the book, Are Miraculous Gifts for Today? is the "open but cautious" view. This view recognizes that there are no explicit verses in the New Testament that say that miraculous gifts have ceased, and so, this group wants to stay open to the possibility that the miraculous gifts may still exist, but at the same time, they are uncomfortable with the teachings and practices of the charismatic and vineyard movements.~~

In any discussion of the "miraculous" spiritual gifts, we must first recognize that God does still perform miracles today. It is clear both from Scripture and experience that God does continue to heal and perform miracles. But are the gifts of the Spirit as described in 1 Corinthians 12-14 still happening in the church today?~~
