They said goodbye years ago, but wedding bells just might remind these ex-lovers that their relationship was never really over... When they were high school sweethearts, Aurora Klein and Tyler Forrester imagined they would spend their entire lives together. Though Aurora's dreams of going to college went beyond Wild River, Alaska, she would've chosen to compromise if it meant staying close to Tyler. Instead, he ended their relationship after graduation. With a broken heart, Aurora moved to California and never planned on looking back. And yet, six years later, Aurora finds herself back in Wild River to serve as maid of honor at her best friend's wedding. There's only one problem: Tyler is the best man. Aurora expects an awkward reunion, but she doesn't count on rekindling the flame that still burns between them...or having to team up with him to search for the runaway bride!
