"This book provides a discussion of the managerial aspects, solutions and case studies related to e-business, disseminating current achievements and practical solutions and applications"--Provided by publisher.

Renault, Samsung, Lacoste This book provides opportunities to discover a selection of issues recently faced by 10 major French companies. Each case offers in a clear and structured manner: a case presentation sheet including the problem statement, learning objectives, as well as the main themes and marketing tools used throughout the case; a narrative reviewing important information about the company and its environment, leading to the problem to be investigated; a series of questions guiding the draft of a structured solution; a detailed solution outlining the main strategic recommendations. Based on real issues and written in collaboration with the companies, the 10 field-based case studies allow applying marketing principles, theories and models: segmentation, positioning, marketing plan, as well as designing strategies at the product, price, place and promotion levels. Learning by doing, applied to marketing!"

The Case Study method of teaching and learning, adopted by business schools and management centres globally, provides an important function in management education, but employing it effectively can often be a challenge. This book provides practical insights, tools and approaches for both case teaching and writing, drawing on perspectives from expert practitioners around the world. This book aims to critically examine different approaches to using case studies in group-based, participant-centred learning environments, exploring good practices for case teaching and learning. It provides guidance for case writers on various approaches to structuring case data, presentational formats, and the use of technology in the construction of different types of cases. It also demonstrates the use of the case method as a tool for assessment, supporting students' own development of cases to showcase good practice in organisations. The final section of this book showcases some of the resources available, providing links and reviews of additional material that can support future case teaching and writing practice, including publication. The Case Study Companion is designed for lecturers using cases within their teaching across all management disciplines, as well as those training for Professional Development and Management Education qualifications. It will also be useful for postgraduate, MBA and Executive Education students wanting to make the most of case studies in their learning and assessments.

"You've got a great idea that will increase revenue or productivity--but how do you get approval to make it happen? By building a business case that clearly shows its value. Maybe you struggle to win support for projects because you're not sure what kind of data your stakeholders will trust, or naysayers always seem to shoot your ideas down at the last minute. Or perhaps you're intimidated by analysis and number crunching, so you just take a stab at estimating costs and benefits, with little confidence in your accuracy. To get any idea off the ground at your company you'll have to make a strong case for it. This guide gives you the tools to do that"--

Case Studies for Corporate Finance: From A (Anheuser) to Z (Zyys) (In 2 Volumes) provides a distinctive collection of 51 real business cases dealing with corporate finance issues over the period of 1985 – 2014.
