Crash is a really intriguing character, but he's also really real. Spinelli artfully portrays a character I initially felt I had nothing in common with, as a real person that I could relate to. This book made me think. I recommend it to readers of all ages.

But Zinkoff also raises his hand with all the wrong answers, trips over his own feet, and falls down with laughter over a word like "Jabip." Other kids have their own word to describe him, but Zinkoff is too busy to hear it. He doesn't know he's not like
