Disruptive Innovation

Disrupting Class uses the theories of disruptive innovation to show how schools and training organisations can overcome this dilemma. Society now asks this system to do something it has never before done: educate every member. To tackle this, schools and organisations must make learning intrinsically motivating for each student.

The way we learn doesn't always match up with the way we are taught. If we hope to stay competitive—academically, economically, and technologically—we need to reevaluate our educational system, rethink our approach to learning, and reinvigorate our commitment to learning. In other words, we need disruptive innovation. Clayton M. Christensen and coauthors Michael B. Horn and Curtis W. Johnson take one of the most important issues of our time – education – and apply
