Star Wars Darth Bane Dynasty Of Evil is the final book in the Darth Bane trilogy and a great conclusion to the series. Of course Bane returns, and with his apprentice in tow, sets out on another grand adventure. I feel that this book did take just a little longer than the previous two to get started, but once it gets going it's captivating.

I will say that Dynasty of Evil is imaginative, expansive and beautifully diverse. There are several well detailed characters and I actually understood their motives (which is a very common gripe of mine...) and development arcs. These people did things I understood. They failed to do things that were daft or sincerely misguided.

Dynasty of Evil is a fantastic final chapter to this trilogy. Darth Bane's powers are finally wearing on him, and Zannah sees this as she debates whether to help him or use this opportunity to strike. The duo is so incredibly Sith-like that the lust for power makes for an intense ending to this story.
