Set Specific Goals. Instead of dwelling on perfection, help your kids set specific, flexible, realistic goals. Goals give kids purpose, passion and motivation to play hard and improve. To help kids avoid unrealistic expectations, remind them to concentrate on goals that will help them stay grounded and present. These are immediate, day-to-day goals.

Achievable: Goals should be challenging within reason—not impossible. It is best to encourage our children to take one step at a time and not to make things too difficult for themselves. They will be happier if they reach a few easier goals than struggling to attain a really difficult one. Relevant: Goals need to mean something to the children. They need to be excited and passionate about what they are working towards.
