Experiencing The Depths Of Jesus Christ

Guyon calls out to us believers to learn a new way of prayer and a new way to read Scripture. This new way will ultimately lead us to experience the depths of Jesus Christ. Guyon recognizes that man is tripartite or trichotomous in nature. Meaning that man is composed of spirit, soul (psyche), and body. It is in the spirit of man that we meet Christ.

There will be many tough patches as you get to know the depths of the self. The journey is the same one very clearly pointed out in Teresa of Avila's 'Interior Castle'. In fact I recommend also reading Teresa of Avila's classic text to gain more depth into the inner journey after you have read 'Experiencing the Depths of Jesus Christ'.
