In his illustrious career as a cartoonist for the New Yorker and other publications, Joseph Farris has created dozens of hilarious cartoons about “ the best game in the world at which to be bad. ” A.A. Milne had it right, and Farris ’ s cartoons get to the heart of the game ’ s wonderful contradiction: over the course of eighteen holes, golf has the capacity to bring great joy and drive you crazy. Farris treats us to the sight of a blissfully happily newlywed with “ Just Married ” emblazoned on the back of his golf cart; of an archaeologist who discovers a hieroglyph featuring an annoyed-looking pharaoh breaking a golf club over his knee; and a TV-watching husband who rebuffs his naked wife ’ s amorous advances in no uncertain terms: “ Not now, I ’ m
