Numerous dictators have secured and held (and lost) power all over the world throughout the last century, but one modern dictator whose style, aims, and trajectory is remarkably similar to that of Nazi Germany's Adolf Hitler is Idi Amin, the dictator of Uganda throughout the 1970s. Idi Amin began his career as a soldier in the British army in Uganda (Telegraph), much as Hitler had been a member of the German army before his rise to power (Stackelberg 81).

Myths and Realities of Idi Amin Dada's Uganda

Idi Amin was born Idi Amin Dada Oumee in Uganda's northwest, near the borders of Sudan and Congo. His exact birth date is unknown, but most researchers believe he was born around the year 1925. Amin's father was a farmer and a member of the Kakwa – a tribe indigenous to Uganda, Congo, and Sudan – while his mother was of the Lugbara people.

Uganda was one of the lesser-known African countries until the 1970s when Idi Amin Dada rose to the presidency. His bizarre public pronouncements--ranging from gratuitous advice for Richard Nixon to his proclaimed intent to raise a monument to Adolf Hitler--fascinated the popular news media. Beneath the facade of buffoonery, however, the darker reality of massacres and disappearances was considered equally newsworthy. Uganda became known as an African horror story, fully identified with its field marshal president. Even a decade after Amin's flight from Uganda in 1979, popular imagination still insisted on linking the country and its exiled former ruler

What would it be like to become Idi Amin's personal physician? Giles Foden's bestselling thriller is the story of a young Scottish doctor drawn into the heart of the Ugandan dictator's surreal and brutal regime. Privy to Amin's thoughts and ambitions, he is both fascinated and appalled. As Uganda plunges into civil chaos he realises action is imperative - but which way should he jump?

as the country plunged into social and economic chaos. In this powerful and provocative new account, Mark Leopold places Amin's military background and close relationship with the British state at the heart of the story. He traces the interwoven development of Amin's career and his popular image as an almost supernaturally evil monster, demonstrating the impossibility of fully distinguishing the truth from the many myths surrounding the dictator. Using an innovative biographical approach, Leopold reveals how Amin was, from birth, deeply rooted in the history of British colonial rule, how his rise was a legacy of imperialism, and how his monstrous image was created.

This title tells the story of the African leaders who ignited independence in black Africa during the 1960s through the eyes of two Americans who knew them well.

This book contains ten things which make Jesus special and different from all other prophets and great men who have ever lived on the face of the Earth. The world has seen great philosophers like Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli among others, but none spoke words that could bring healing to the sick world, only the words of Jesus could bring healing to the sick. (John 5:6-9). The world has seen people with great names such as Napoleon "The great", Metternich, Adolph Hitler, Idi Amin Dada, but none had a name which could drive demons away, but Jesus has a name which has power over demons (Mark 16:17), The name Jesus is the name above every other name, and at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow and every tongue must confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Philippians 2:9-11). The world has seen great prophets who performed great miracles such as Moses, but non died and resurrected. Jesus died and on the third day, he resurrected and lives forever more. (John 20, Luke 24, Mark 16 and Mathew 28) The world has had great people who began great religions like; Nataputta vardhamana (599-527 BC) Who began Jainism. Siddhrtha Gautama (Budha 563 BC) Began the Buddhist religion. Lao Tzu (604-524 BC) Began Taoism Confucius (551 BC) began Confucianism Zoroaster (660 BC) began Zoroastrianism. Constantine the great (325 AD in the Council of Nicaea with 220 Bishops), he began the Catholic religion. Muhammad (AD 610) he began the Islamic religion. Nanak (AD 1469) he began the Sikhism. Martin Luther king (1545 AD after the Council of Trent) he began the protestant religion. Madam Herren G White (1844 AD) he began the seventh day Adventist. Joseph Smith (1820 AD) he began the Mormonism. But none of these brought Salvation to the world. Only Jesus the son of God is the saviour of mankind (Luke 1:26-35). The world has had saints like "the virgin" Mary, Peter, Paul among others, but none of these has never sinned (Rom 3:23) Only Jesus the son of God lived a sinless life. (Rom 3:24, Rev 5:1-5). The world has seen great demagogic Orators like Otto Von Bismarck, Metternich, but there is non who spoke a word and a miracle happened. Only Jesus spoke and miracles had no option but to happen.
