Pastor John, in the last podcast episode, episode 214, you addressed recent allegations claiming that, while you are open to prophecy and tongues today, you don't seem convinced enough to advocate that others pursue these gifts. You corrected that, and you said there are good exegetical reasons for your confidence.

John - Prophecy Today

It was the New Testament gift of prophecy. When that thought came into John ' s mind, he wasn ' t consciously aware that the Spirit was revealing specific information to him regarding a specific individual, but the Spirit was.

What Does Prophecy Look Like Today? | Desiring God
No. Whatever the case, whenever a person claims to be speaking for God (the essence of prophecy) the key is to compare what is said with what the Bible says. If God were to speak through a person today, it would be in 100% complete agreement with what God has already said in the Bible.

Prophecy Today

Twenty-six hundred years ago, God provided the prophet Daniel with a number of visions concerning the future. In one of these visions, God revealed several events set to take place just prior to the Second Coming. But an angel told Daniel to seal up his vision until the end times, "when travel and knowledge will increase".

The example John Paul Jackson gives of Samuel and Gad reflect two people operating in the office of Prophecy and the office of Seer; and I agree these are still functional today, although under the New Covenant (not the Old Covenant, under which Samuel and Gad operated).

Prophecy, Seers and Prophets - Seers See Ministries
Besides the media bias, there is a kind of theological bias against Israel going on in churches and seminaries today. The liberal churches have always been a lost cause so far as biblical study is concerned, and they, of course, are blissfully unaware of the relevance of Israel in prophecy, or of prophecy in general, for that matter.

Today's Israel in Prophecy | Zola Levitt Ministries
The Hebrew word for prophesy is “nebuw’ah” and means “a specific prophecy” or “a prophetic writing,” but at the simplest level, it means “to speak forth” or “forth telling” by the Greek definition. Its first or primary meaning is not to prophesy future events but to speak forth the words of God, from God. John the Baptist

Are There Still Prophets Today?

The Elijah Prophecy The Elijah prophecy is a well known Bible prophecy concerning the coming of an 'Elijah' before the second coming of Christ Jesus. a great misunderstanding within the mainstream churches today as to who exactly this 'Elijah' is going to be. Many believe that it will be literal Elijah who will come back to earth from heaven.

The Elijah Prophecy - Who is the End Time Elijah? When one receives a "Word" from God - by the Holy Spirit - through the 'inner witness' of our spirit - that word - is a prophetic word of God. It doesn't have to come through someone else to be prophesy. It is in fact God speaking by His Spirit - to us directly - and that is another form of prophesy.
