It is also an attempt to fill the existing gap in the use of computational methods for studying the Iranian Twittersphere. We aim to use big social data collected from user interactions on Twitter to present a more accurate mapping of the political landscape of Persian Twitter (similar to Kelly and Etling's study (2008) on Blogestan). The 2013 presidential election is a particularly significant context for studying Twitter use in Iran, since it followed a strict ban on Twitter use after the ...
