To shoot photography with your soul, don't think. Shoot with your emotions and your heart. That means, whenever you see a scene that compels you in some sort of way — just take a photo of it. Don't think too much when you're out shooting.

Soul Photography - ERIC KIM

An ongoing series of urban "portraits" by Spain-born, New York City-based photographer Xan Padrón. Inspired by a 2-year project spent shooting a NYC bus through every neighbourhood, "Time Lapse" is about capturing the soul of a city through its people — random, regular and without showing any of the surrounding landscape:
