Yes, I believe Peerless is made in USA. They are owned by Tecumseh. Their trans are used in nearly all brands of mowers, ATV, go-carts etc. This one is a manual shift, so there is no filter. The grease they use is formulated to stay put on the gears. Their cases are not sealed very well! Their OEM grease is very expensive and is only available from them.

It has the 12 inch rear rims and 8 inch in front if I'm not mistaken.
But from reading the peerless repair manual in which there 2 different 2600. I have the hi and low one, so it apparently equipped with the lock collar on the differential . Also it's of course a 6 speed varidrive. So I guess I have 12 imaginary gears haha .
