The Book With No Name by Anonymous | Waterstones
The Book With No Name does, and suddenly we have a Hellmouth, some quips about Buffy, people wearing Karate Kid and Terminator costumes, and a rapid devolvement into narrative nonsense. Its a shame that this latter half of the book is so weak when compared with the first half, but even the best joke suffers when drawn out rather than being allowed the snappy delivery it needs.

Review: The Book With No Name by Anonymous - Read in a ...
The Book With No Name reached out a hand and roughly pulled back the man's hood to reveal the chiselled but unshaven face of a blond-haired fellow in his early thirties. The man had bloodshot eyes, suggesting he was slightly hungover or had only just woken prematurely from a drunken slumber.

The Book With No Name
The Book With No Name is a fun read. It's an over-the-top gangster/vampire/biker/bad-cop/worse-cop shoot-'em-up blood-with-extra-guts sort of thing. It has some problems, though.
