The Confession (1999) - IMDb

THE CONFESSION is a gripping courtroom thriller about a man who loses everything and in return gains his soul. It explores one man's quest for justice and another's man's perception of morality. The scheming dynamics of each character builds to a pulse-pounding conclusion when the lines between good and evil are crossed.

"The Confession" one of the better books in the series. It has a complex plot with sometimes too many threads. It was difficult to follow the motivations of the main characters and this difficulty was woven into the plot with care, illustrating that Inspector Rutledge struggled with this too. I'm just not sure it needed to be so difficult.
