In the 1980s, corporate managers began to realize that brands have financial and strategic value, as well as emotional and cognitive associations. A brand can enhance itself over time, since it grows as its product or service grows. The product embodies the brand and becomes the main way that customers evaluate it.

The New Strategic Brand Management Free Summary by Jean ...

A brand, Kapferer argues, is not a product, but the product's essence, its meaning, and its direction. Strategic brand management starts with a holistic understanding of this gestalt rather than its component parts: the brand name, logo, design or packaging, and image.
