Further, this New World Order will work to usher in a time of unprecedented prosperity, freeing the world from wars, disease, hunger, and poverty. The book written by Frederick Hicks in 1920 called The New World Order appears to be the earliest popularization of the term related to a global power structure. The phrase has since been used in many contexts, ranging from popular fiction to a speech by George H.W. Bush claiming the cold war had ended.

The New World Order – What is it?

The "New World Order" has been a prominent conspiracy theory for decades [1]. Here and now, as the new millennium dawns, the New World Order has become a globally recognised political concept, [2] and as such it can no longer be regarded simply as a theory. Mankind is now literally entering a new age, the Age of Aquarius, according to the ancient zodiacal calendar which is as old as human civilisation. [3]
