Ashtanga Yoga Chikitsa (Yoga Therapy) addresses practice from a therapeutic perspective, as well as appreciating the sheer joy and beauty of the body in movement. An essential component of yoga is to increase the quality of blood and its efficient flow throughout the body. The Vinyasa system of Ashtanga Yoga combines Ujjayi breathing with bandha control in order to produce the heat required to facilitate the purification and efficiency of the internal and external organs.

Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga is a style of yoga as exercise created by K. Pattabhi Jois during the 20th century, often promoted as a modern-day form of classical Indian yoga. He claimed to have learnt the system from his teacher, Tirumalai Krishnamacharya. The style is energetic, synchronising breath with movements. The individual poses are linked by flowing movements. Jois established his Ashtanga Yoga Research Institute in 1948. The current style of teaching is called Mysore style after the city in I
